Voters need to know that when disaster strikes, Lina Hidalgo has been there for us. She led the county through COVID-19, floods, chemical fires, and a deadly winter freeze.

- She fast-tracked projects to fight flooding.
- And she led on improvements to the County's emergency preparedness plans.
- She took on developers head-on and passed the strongest detention requirements to protect our homes from flooding.

Voters need to know that, if re-elected, Lina will continue to guide our county without the influence of politics or outside financial influence – to keep us safe.

Hispanic and African American voters in Harris County need to know that Lina Hidalgo is focused on investing in our children and keeping our families safe.

- She invested eighty million dollars in early childhood education.
- Fought to pass the largest law enforcement budget in county history to hire more police officers and raise their pay.
- Took action to keep guns away from dangerous people.
